

Welcome

The West Linn Police Department continually strives toward solving issues of community concern while working diligently with members of the community to ensure the highest possible quality of life for all who live and work here.

We believe we are part of this community and appreciate the support we receive from the citizens. Our goal is to have open lines of communication and be adaptable to an ever changing society. We strive to honor diversity and welcome positive change.

The members of the West Linn Police Department are a group of highly dedicated professionals. They continually demonstrate their willingness to assist others regardless of the situation. The men and women of the West Linn Police Department are not only prepared and highly trained to face these situations; we will also do everything within our power to be on the front lines so our citizens are protected to the best of our ability.

The West Linn Police Department subscribes to community based policing and has been and will continue to be involved with all forms of city government, community groups, civic groups as well as neighborhood associations. We work closely with surrounding police agencies to maximize law enforcement effectiveness benefiting all community members who live and work in Clackamas County.

Law Enforcement throughout the nation will face many changes in the coming years and we are confident a community such as West Linn will rise to the occasion and effectively overcome those challenges.

As you browse through our web site you will find many sources of information to assist you. If you are looking for something not listed, please feel free to contact us and we will do our best to assist you.
